

Journal and Courier.

NEW HAVEN, CONN.
THREE MONTHS, $1.50; ONE MONTH, 50 CENTS; ONE WEEK, 15 CENTS; SINGLE COPIES, 3 CENTS.

Thursday, January 10, 1895.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS TO-DAY.
Announcement—E. B. Jeffcott.
Jolly Chat—Malley, Neely & Co.
Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy—At Druggists.
Dr. Greene's Nervine—At Druggists.
Entertainment—Grand Opera House.
Entertainment—Hyperion Theater.
Farmington Butter—Gilbert & Thompson.
For Sale—House—John T. Sloan.
Grand Shopping Expedition—F. A. Brown & Co.
Private Dispensary—738 Chapel Street.
Ready Dresses—Cana, Monson Co.
Stylish Cloaks—Howe & Stetson.
Broadway Lectures—Zuni Ave. This Office.
Wanted—Situation—32 Putnam Street.
Wanted—Situation—B. A. This Office.
Wanted—Situation—11 Lay Street.
Wanted—Situation—138 Franklin Street.
Wanted—Situation—Box 50, Hartford.
Wanted—Girl—14 Greene Street.

WEATHER RECORD.
AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF THE WEATHER BUREAU,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 9, 1895, 8 p. m.
Forecast for Thursday—For Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut: Rain or snow;
northeasterly winds.

Local Weather Report.
FOR JANUARY 9, 1895
S
A.M. P.M.
Barometer..... 30.43 30.48
Temperature..... 31 39
Rel. Humidity..... 85 80
Wind Direction..... N N
Wind Velocity..... 7 N
Weather..... Cloudy Cloudy
Mean temperature, 33.
Max. temperature, 39.
Min. temperature, 30.
Precipitation, .15 inches.
Max. velocity of wind, 12 N.
Accumulated deficiency of daily mean temperature since Jan. 1, 14.5 degrees; or an average daily deficiency of 2.7 degrees.
Total excess of precipitation since January 1, .45 inches.
U. G. MYERS, Observer.

Note.—A minus sign (-) prefixed to thermometer readings indicates temperature below zero.
"F" in connection with rainfall indicates trace of rainfall too small to measure.
"Snow" is melted and resulting depth of water not known.

LOCAL NEWS.

Buy a new house—R. E. Baldwin.
Patrol Driver Blake returned to duty last night after a week's absence in consequence of illness.

The annual meeting of the Hospital Aid society will be held in Trinity parish building, Temple street, Friday, January 11, at 10 a. m.

The county commissioners yesterday took in $4,400 for liquor licenses. Tuesday the receipts were $10,000, making a total of $14,400 in two days.

The winter term of the Yale medical school will open to-day. Examinations were held yesterday for all students conditioned at the close of last term.

The announcement is made of the betrothal of Miss Anna L. Carter of this city to Dr. Walter Booth Adams of Belmont, Ky. Both are graduates of the Collinsville high school.

A. B. Greenwood, the well known dealer in fine boots and shoes, 73 Chapel street, is distributing at his attractive store a cute little puzzle. Call and get one and see his excellent stock of goods.
It is a credit to Chapel street.

The New Haven Electric company has filed a petition in the office of the secretary of the state asking for power to use and sell electricity within the towns of Orange, Hamden and East Haven, and to increase its capital stock.

The Hon. Edward J. Phelps, ex-minister to England, returned to New Haven yesterday to assume his course of lectures before the Yale law students.
His health is much improved. He will re-occupy the Moore residence on Whitney avenue.

The funeral of Solomon Steinhardt of 149 Congress avenue was attended at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by a large circle of friends. Rev. Dr. Levy of the Court street synagogue was the officiating clergyman. The bearers were from Moses Mendelssohn lodge, O. K. S. B.

The West Shore Railway company, now operating an electric railway in Orange and Milford, has filed a petition asking the legislature for an amendment to its charter to allow it to construct a line through Milford road, to Pond Point road, to Welch's Point, to the Gulf road, to New Haven avenue and through the Bridgeport turnpike to Washington bridge.

At the business meeting of the Connecticut Historical society in Hartford Tuesday night the Rev. Dr. George Leon Walker read a report indicating the great value to be attached to the papers recently presented to the society by James Terry of New Haven relating to the first church of Canterbury and the separatist movement in this state in the early history of the colony.

The annual meeting of the Calvary Baptist Ecclesiastical society was held in the church parlor last evening. The report of the treasurer was accepted.
The following officers were elected:
Julius Twiss, moderator; John S. Fowler, clerk; W. G. Spaulding, treasurer; standing committee, Theo. F. Booth, chairman; W. G. Spaulding, W. H.
Douglass, Julius Twiss and F. S. Curtiss.

Carelessness Punished.
The board of directors of the New Haven Street Railway company have investigated the recent collision of two electric cars on the Whitney avenue line, and as a result have discharged Motorman Doyle and Motorman Foley has been suspended for thirty days.
Conductor Dwyer has also been suspended thirty days, but Conductor Turner has been exonerated and reinstated.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion.
The sale of seats for Miss Justine Ingersoll's Kleins Kinder Christmas carnival is now rapidly progressing at the Hyperion box office. The prices are 25 cents, 35 cents and a few reserved seats at 50 cents. The same prices will be charged both afternoon and evening. Those intending to purchase seats should hasten to do so, as the advanced sale indicates packed houses. In addition to the New Year's day program, several other novelties have been secured, making the already great amusement bill still greater. Miss Ingersoll has made the prices low to enable all to see the pretty performance.
Rose Coghlan will appear at the Hyperion on Monday evening next in her new play, "Nemesis." The play provides her with another of those adventures which she acts with so much skill, and her "Mlle. Walford," a Russian in Paris with no family history, will do as a companion picture to her "Countess Zicka" in "Diplomacy." The plot is intense in interest, brilliant in its comedy passages and deeply moving in its emotional movements, and acted as it is by a capital company, handsomely costumed and prettily set, it goes with abundant spirit. Miss Cog-hlan's support is excellent throughout.

Grand Opera House.
Last night just as the curtain descended on the last act Mr. Morris, star of "The Lost Paradise" company, stepped forward and addressed the audience, who resumed their seats, and in a few well chosen words Mr. Morris introduced Mr. Cleveland, the eloquent blind lawyer of Hartford, who was led forward to the front by Mr. G. B. Bun-nell. Mr. Cleveland made a stirring appeal in behalf of the entertainments now being given at the Second regiment armory in behalf of the blind. The audience applauded heartily and gave close attention to the appeal in behalf of so worthy an undertaking.

A. Y. Pearson's big scenic surprise,
"The Police Patrol," comes to the Grand for three nights, commencing to-night.
The play is filled with genuine interest, power, naturalness and pathos. The story on which the play is founded is briefly this: A benevolent old gentleman in helping a nephew out of financial difficulties gives a check for $50, which the ungrateful young man raises to $350. The discovery of this causes coldness between the old man and his erring nephew, and the former for a worthy object holds the check over the nephew's head, hoping to compel him to take the path of honesty. But a burglary occurs at the millionaire's home. One of the burglars proves to be the nephew. Shots are exchanged and the millionaire dies in defense of his property. The play hinges on this murder, and in its various acts illustrates the methods used by the police departments of the Chicago department of police in tracing out a crime of this character. Realism is prominent throughout the entire production, adding greatly to the powerful situations of the play. "Police Patrol" matinee Saturday.

A COMPANY OF STARS.
There will be plenty of stars at the Grand next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. In fact, all-star combinations will present the show. They are the New York stars. They will give one of the best vaudeville shows which has ever been presented upon any single stage in the city. Daily and Devere will appear in the light comedy sketch,
"Bridget's Word Goes;" Lina and Walter, two of the greatest performers, in their daring and thrilling specialty; C. W.
Littlefield, the mimic and impersonator;
the three Gardner brothers, in a sketch replete with songs, dances and instrumental selections; the Crane brothers, in their funny "Barn Door Dances;" Fred Leslie and his performing dogs, in a capital exhibition; Leonard and Moran, the two noted Irish comedians, in good singing and dancing, and bristling with witticisms. Miss Nellie Waters, the western; Maggie Cline, in Irish songs; Mme. Flora, the great transformation dancer, in her beautiful terpsichorean specialty, introducing novel and startling electrical effects. There will also be a funny farce of absurdity entitled,
"5000 Reward, Dead or Alive," in which the entire company will take part. The reward offered in the title is for every laugh less than fifty. Big star matinee Wednesday.

In the lecture hall annex at the Grand opera house "The Fire King" is eating his salamander meal at every performance. The hall is open free to the patrons of the theater.

Poll's Wonderful Theater.
Schaffer is proving a great drawing card at the Wonderland. It is probably true that the biggest crowds of the season have been seen there this week.
So extraordinarily phenomenal is his juggling, and so marvelous his exhibition of equis, that everyone results in seeing him that they are really gazing upon the most wonderful spectacle in his line the world has ever seen.
He easily sets at defiance apparently all laws of gravitation. And the rest of the performance is of a piece with Schaffer's. Miss Jennings in her scientific glove encounter with Mr. O'Brien shows how well a woman may learn to take the splendid physical excess of sparring, and how graceful such exercise can make her in all her movements.
Little Miss Annie Mabel O'Brien, the Deans, Francis Bryant, the Misses Burt and Bennett, Johnson, Davenport and Lorella, the Vidoos, and Haynes and Redmond, present their specialties which insure solid fun to all who visit the Wonderland.

About New Haveners and Others.
Yesterday's Litchfield Enquirer remarks: "The Rev. Mr. Miles of New Haven officiated at the Congregational church on Sunday and also at the preparatory service on Saturday and at the prayer meeting on Monday evening.
Mr. Miles has made many friends in Litchfield, and is greatly liked, both in and out of the pulpit."

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Woodruff have gone to Lakewood, N. J., and expect to be away from Litchfield about six weeks.
Miss E. M. Hadley, daughter of Mrs.
Smith Grannis, returned on Monday to the Woman's Medical college in Philadelphia, where she expects to graduate in the spring. Her cousin, Miss Alice P. Scranton, daughter of Charles W. Scranton of New Haven, who has been spending the holidays with her at South View Villa, accompanied her as far as New Haven.

FESTIVAL FOR THE BLIND.

Very Pleading Entertainment—A Chance to See the Blind Work—Some Good Music Rendered By Them.
The festival for the blind of this state was opened last evening at the Second Regiment armory, with F. E.
Cleveland, president of the Institution for the Blind in Hartford, in charge.

The program rendered was as follows:
Selection—Espagnola Mandolin Club.
Selection—Harvard Singing Society.
Recitation—"The Organ Builder"—
Miss Stella Clark.
Vocal Solo—"The Maid of Dundee"— Miss Emma Peterson.
Piano Solo—Mr. Meyers.
Selection—Espagnola Mandolin Club.
Baritone Solo—Mr. Goodyear.
Selection on Orchestral Symphony—Mr. Jackson.
Selection—"We Meet Again Tonight"—Glee Club from the Institution.

The numbers were all good and those parts rendered by the blind were especially appreciated, as it was recalled what difficulties they had met with in the preparation. Miss Peterson was especially good in her contralto solo, her voice filling the room. At the conclusion of the program the audience was invited to see the blind working in the rear of the room, where the men were making brooms. It is truly surprising how defert these people are, some of whom have never seen the light of day.
The various articles necessary in the entertainment have been loaned by different firms and persons. The cards for cars and other odd bills by Tuttle, Morehouse & Taylor; tickets by Price, Lee & Adkins; silverware by J. B.
Bright; dishes by Diebel; chairs by Chamberlain, Stahl & Hegel, Brown &
Durham, Lewis & Maycock, Armstrong & Co., and Cox & Henze; piano by Loomis; gas stoves by New Haven Gas company, and decorations by New Haven Decorating company. The following young ladies served ice cream and cake to those who wished to buy:
Miss Wright, Miss Nelly Scranton,
Miss Daisy Denwell, Mrs. J. W. Adams, Miss Inez Batterby, Miss Alice Burdick, Miss Woods and Miss Hopkins. The festival will close Saturday evening.

The program for this afternoon and evening will be as follows, at 3 p. m. all the participants being blind:
Song—"We Meet Again, Boys"— Blind Glee Club.
Piano Solo—..... Liszt
Selection on Symphony.....
Recitation—"The Signal Box"—
Miss Stella Clark.
Baritone Solo—"Two Grenadiers"— Professor George Marshall.
Piano Solo—H. W. Miles.
Solo—Miss Emma Peterson.
Selection on Symphony..... Wagner
Recitation—"The Jiners"—Miss Stella Clark.

8:30 P. M.
Part I.
Selection—Nicolary's Italian Band.
Selection—"B" Quartet.
March—"The New High School"—Adler
Mower's Orchestra.
Song—"Institute Glee Club.
Overture—"Festival"—..... Lentner
Mower's Orchestra.
"In Old Madrid"—Miss Peterson.
Song—Trinity Quartet.
Selection—Orchestral Symphony.
Cornet Solo—"The Dream of Love"
..... Hoffmann
Mr. Steve Williams.

Part II.
Recitation—"Legend of the Organ Builder"—..... J. C. R. Doir
Miss Stella Clark.
Selection—"B" Quartet.
Baritone Solo—Mr. George Marshall.
Selections from "Mariana"—Wallace
Mower's Orchestra.
Piano Solo—H. R. W. Miles.
Selections:
Patrol—"The Crack Regiment"—..... Tobani
Two-Step March—"The Belle of New Haven"—..... F. E. Adler Medley Orchestra—"Midway Plain-ance"—..... Wagner Schottische—"The Frolics of the Sylphs"—..... Voelkner Valse—"Seufzer"—.....
Galop—"At the Fair"—..... Russell

Church of the Redeemer.
The annual meeting of the Church of the Redeemer will be held this evening at which time the reports of the several officers of the church will be submitted.

DO YOU

Know How Cheap You Can Buy a

Fur Cape?

OF
BROOKS & CO.,

Chapel, cor. State st.

75 cents on the $1.00.

Want a Wedding Gift, Watch, or a Diamond, cheap?
If so,
call on SILVERTHAU'S
the Diamond Experts,
They have reduced
all prices.
790 Chapel street.

MALLEY-NEELY & CO.

New Haven, Thursday, Jan. 10, 1895.

The weather to-day—Likely to be fair.

TELEPHONE No. 33

Housekeepers' Sale

Take Monday. You
know what a day Monday
was, dingy overhead and
dangerous underfoot.
Thought our Sale of Linens,
Cottons, Bedding, Crockery,
Glassware and Kitchen Implements, was knocked in the head, sure. Didn't seem to be any crowd. Didn't expect any. Went down into the Delivery Department

about 5:30
P. M. just to see what we
had done.
Lo and be-
hold, if the stuff wasn't
stacked up
on all sides
and they told us it
had been a
"good" day, "big" day.

Now why was that? We hadn't beaten any drums, nor
blown any horns, nor boomed our offerings with big
black type, nor emblazoned
on our banners, "Regardless
of cost," "Ruination prices,"
"Tremendous slaughter."
And yet people came, they bought, they went away, they
came again, they bought,
they're still buying. They're going to patronize this
"Housekeepers' Sale" right
up to Saturday night 10
o'clock. Why is that? we repeat.

They
read the program.
Simply
read the
program.
We published
it Sunday,
Monday, and Wednesday. Some things
are sold out. Most things are left. A number of things
have been added.

The women know how to keep house. We know how to keep store. Our mutual dealings work like a charm.
Have you attended? Shall
we see you before the week
is out? "If not, why not?"

In Prof. Schurr's Natural History Collection just one Butterfly, valued at $1,000.00.
One of only two Birds of Paradise in the U. S. value $500.00. The wonderful Jewel
Beetles. The largest Rattlesnake ever captured, 7 ft. 2 inches, etc., etc. Free to everybody.
Carpet Hall, Second Floor.

Another reason why our Book-
Store
gets the trade.
The late
Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes
laid the foundation for his subsequent reputation, in "The Autocrat at the Breakfast
Table." We sell that work
in its original form, bound
in cloth, for 39 cents.

The Dolls are fairly socking in for the Doll Show. Going to try for a prize?

Quaker Buckwheat
is made by the same company who make the celebrated Quaker Oats. They're
baking and serving Buckwheat Cakes every day in the Basement, free. If after you try the Cakes, you
want a package of "Quaker
Buckwheat," all right.
There's no compulsion. A
Cereal Cook Book and a

The C. E. Hart Co.

Buy your Market Supplies
For The Holidays

Where you get the Best Value for Your Money.

Our market is emphatically that
place.
WE OFFER THIS WEEK:
Choice Beef and Mutton,
Delicious Fat Poultry,
All kinds of Game, domestic and
foreign,
Vegetables and Fruits.

350 and 352 STATE STREET.

MALLEY-NEELY & CO.

New Haven, Thursday, Jan. 10, 1895.

The weather to-day—Likely
to be fair.

TELEPHONE No. 33

Housekeepers' Sale

Take Monday. You
know what a day Monday
was, dingy overhead and
dangerous underfoot.
Thought our Sale of Linens,
Cottons, Bedding, Crockery,
Glassware and Kitchen Implements, was knocked in
the head, sure. Didn't seem to be any crowd. Didn't

expect any. Went down into the Delivery Department
about 5:30
P. M. just to see what we
had done.
Lo and be-
hold, if the stuff wasn't
stacked up
on all sides
and they told us it
had been a
"good" day, "big" day.

Now why was that? We hadn't beaten any drums, nor
blown any horns, nor boom-
ed our offerings with big
black type, nor emblazoned
on our banners, "Regardless
of cost," "Ruination prices,"
"Tremendous slaughter."
And yet people came, they
bought, they went away, they
came again, they bought,
they're still buying. They're going to patronize this
"Housekeepers' Sale" right
up to Saturday night 10
o'clock. Why is that? we repeat.

They
read the program.
Simply
read the program.
We published
it Sunday,
Monday, and Wednesday. Some things
are sold out. Most things
are left. A number of things
have been added.

The women know how to keep house. We know how to keep store. Our mutual
dealings work like a charm.
Have you attended? Shall
we see you before the week
is out? "If not, why not?"

In Prof. Schurr's Natural History Collection just one Butterfly, valued at $1,000.00.
One of only two Birds of Paradise in the U. S. value $500.00. The wonderful Jewel
Beetles. The largest Rattlesnake ever
captured, 7 ft. 2 inches, etc., etc. Free to everybody.
Carpet Hall, Second Floor.

Another reason why our
Book-
Store
gets the trade.
The late
Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes
laid the foundation for his subsequent reputation, in "The Autocrat at the Breakfast
Table." We sell that work
in its original form, bound
in cloth, for 39 cents.

The Dolls are fairly socking in for the Doll Show. Going to try for a prize?

Quaker Buckwheat
is made by the same company who make the celebrated Quaker Oats. They're
baking and serving Buck-
wheat Cakes every day in the Basement, free. If after you try the Cakes, you
want a package of "Quaker
Buckwheat," all right.
There's no compulsion. A
Cereal Cook Book and a

The C. E. Hart Co.

Buy your Market Supplies
For The Holidays

Where you get the Best Value for Your Money.

Our market is emphatically that
place.
WE OFFER THIS WEEK:
Choice Beef and Mutton,
Delicious Fat Poultry,
All kinds of Game, domestic and
foreign,
Vegetables and Fruits.

350 and 352 STATE STREET.

MALLEY-NEELY & CO.

New Haven, Thursday, Jan. 10, 1895.

The weather to-day—Likely
to be fair.

TELEPHONE No. 33

Housekeepers' Sale

Take Monday. You
know what a day Monday
was, dingy overhead and
dangerous underfoot.
Thought our Sale of Linens,
Cottons, Bedding, Crockery,
Glassware and Kitchen Implements, was knocked in
the head, sure. Didn't seem to be any crowd. Didn't

expect any. Went down into the Delivery Department
about 5:30
P. M. just to see what we
had done.
Lo and be-
hold, if the stuff wasn't
stacked up
on all sides
and they told us it
had been a
"good" day, "big" day.

Now why was that? We hadn't beaten any drums, nor
blown any horns, nor boom-
ed our offerings with big
black type, nor emblazoned
on our banners, "Regardless
of cost," "Ruination prices,"
"Tremendous slaughter."
And yet people came, they
bought, they went away, they
came again, they bought,
they're still buying. They're going to patronize this
"Housekeepers' Sale" right
up to Saturday night 10
o'clock. Why is that? we repeat.

They
read the program.
Simply
read the
program.
We published
it Sunday,
Monday, and Wednesday. Some things
are sold out. Most things
are left. A number of things
have been added.

The women know how to keep house. We know how to keep store. Our mutual
dealings work like a charm.
Have you attended? Shall
we see you before the week
is out? "If not, why not?"

In Prof. Schurr's Natural History Collection just one Butterfly, valued at $1,000.00.
One of only two Birds of Paradise in the U. S. value $500.00. The wonderful Jewel
Beetles. The largest Rattlesnake ever
captured, 7 ft. 2 inches, etc., etc. Free to everybody.
Carpet Hall, Second Floor.

Another reason why our
Book-
Store
gets the trade.
The late
Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes
laid the foundation for his subsequent reputation, in "The Autocrat at the Breakfast
Table." We sell that work
in its original form, bound
in cloth, for 39 cents.

The Dolls are fairly socking in for the Doll Show. Going to try for a prize?

Quaker Buckwheat
is made by the same company who make the celebrated Quaker Oats. They're
baking and serving Buck-
wheat Cakes every day in the Basement, free. If after you try the Cakes, you
want a package of "Quaker
Buckwheat," all right.
There's no compulsion. A
Cereal Cook Book and a

The C. E. Hart Co.

Buy your Market Supplies
For The Holidays

Where you get the Best Value for Your Money.

Our market is emphatically that
place.
WE OFFER THIS WEEK:
Choice Beef and Mutton,
Delicious Fat Poultry,
All kinds of Game, domestic and
foreign,
Vegetables and Fruits.

350 and 352 STATE STREET.

HOWE & STETSON.

767-771 Chapel Street.

STYLISH CLOAKS

THEY'RE REDUCED FROM $12.50
13.50
14.50
16.00
16.50
18.00
18.50
19.00
NOW

A GRAND RUSH FOR THOSE SILKS

Never before have SUCH Silks been sold at SUCH prices.

Oyeta Crepe 18c.
Just received the latest Silk Krinkle, all evening shades and black 25c a yd.

OUR STOCK OF FANCY SILKS
At ridiculous prices.
48c, 59c, 69c, 79c, 89c.

COTTON PRICES
NEVER SO LOW BEFORE.

Thursday, Jan. 10th, from 10:30 a. m. to 4 p. m., we shall sell Fruit of the Loom Cotton at 6 1-4c a yd.

WE ARE NOW SELLING

Langdon G. B. 8c a yd.
Dwight Anchor, bleached and half bleached, 7c a yd.
Lonsdale Cambric 8c a yd.

AND
1 case World Wide Unbleached Cotton, strong and heavy. A big drive. 5c a yd.
Choice styles in 28-inch Ginghams. Regular 12-1-2c goods 6 1-4c a yd.

Just received a new line of Standard Prints. Excellent styles. 4c a yd.

Howe & Stetson,
THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS STORE.

The Bottles
thrown in when you buy

Rochester Bier

$1.00 per dozen.
Of course, bottles aren't worth much; still, you are generally called upon to settle for them if lost or misplaced or if you are not careful to see to it that they're sent back.

Not So with ROCHESTER.
Your dollar pays for the dozen and includes the bottles.
One transaction only.

Think this over twice.

Edw. E. Hall & Son
770 Chapel Street.

FINEST BEEF
AND LAMB

IN THE CITY.
All kinds of the Best Vegetables.
Telephone call, 574-3.

JACOB F. SHEFFLE,
409 STATE STREET.

Spencer, Matthews & Co.
OILS,
PAINTS, CHEMICALS.

241 State Street 243
NEW HAVEN, CT.